

Where shall I go to play at breaktime?

This is the year 7 playground where only year 7s are allowed to play at breaktime. Some people play football and other people stand and talk to their friends. When it is raining everyone goes inside. The school buses drop off and pick up everyone next to the playground.

Where shall I go if I am worried or lost before school or at breaktimes?

This is the Hut where there are things to do at break times and people to help you make friends. Sometimes you might come here to do extra lessons in a small group.

Where shall I go for assembly?

This is the entrance hall and the assembly hall is through the blue doors. Sometimes you come here for Mass. Also you might come here if it is raining at breaktime.

Where shall I go to speak to Mrs Maxwell or Miss Burgess?

This is the outside of their office. You can come here if you are upset or don't feel very well or if there is a problem with other children that worries you.

Where shall I go to get into school?

This is called the Gatehouse and you can get into school this way. It's also where lost property and first aid are.

Where shall I go to read a book quietly or do my homework?

This is the library, which is open at break times and before school for homework and reading. There is always someone to help you here.

Where shall I go to buy food?

This is the canteen. In the summer you can eat at the picnic tables. Most days people sit on the red chairs to eat. There are ladies in the kitchen who serve you through the hatches. You will need to queue up.

